ChinaCache Announces Criminal Investigation and Changes in Management

BEIJING, May 17, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- ChinaCache International Holdings Ltd. ("ChinaCache" or the "Company") (Nasdaq GS: CCIH), a leading total solutions provider of Internet content and application delivery services in China, today announced that (i) the Company and Mr. Song Wang, the Company's Chairman and former Chief Executive Officer, are under investigation for allegations of bribery; (ii) Mr. Song Wang has resigned his position as the Company's Chief Executive Officer and (iii) the Company's Board of Directors (the "Board") appointed Mr. Bin Liu as the Company's Acting Chief Executive Officer, effective May 17, 2019.

The Company has received a notice from a government prosecutors' office in Beijing that the Company is currently under investigation for allegations of enterprise bribery. The Company has engaged a criminal defense counsel to prepare for the relevant legal proceedings. As the legal proceedings are still at a relatively early stage, the Company is currently unable to assess the likely outcomes of such proceedings.

Mr. Song Wang has been arrested and is also currently under investigation for the allegations of enterprise bribery against the Company. Mr. Song Wang has tendered his resignation as the Company's Chief Executive Officer to the Board.

The Board has appointed Mr. Bin Liu as the Company's Acting Chief Executive Officer, effective May 17, 2019. Mr. Bin Liu joined the Company in 2012 and was the Company's Vice President in charge of new products development prior to his appointment to the current position. Mr. Bin Liu received a master's degree from Beijing University of Posts and Telecommunications.

Ms. Jean Xiaohong Kou, a Director and Senior Vice President of the Company, said "the Board is committed to taking all necessary measures to improve the Company's legal compliance and internal controls. The independent members of the Board plan to launch an internal investigation of the bribery-related allegations and to engage outside advisors to assist the independent members of the Board in conducting such investigation as soon as practicable."
